HONOLULU society matrons at the head of charitable institutions who are continually originating some fete in order that funds may be raised for the needy, have some years chosen fairs and garden fetes and sometimes musicals. Just for a change, a charity ball such as are given in the larger cities might be welcome.

San Francisco society folks have for some time been planning the charity ball for the benefit of the Catholic Humane Bureau to care for orphaned children. The function took place at the Scottish Rite Hall on the twenty-eighth of March and was a brilliant success. Madame Louise Tetravini, beloved in San Francisco, contributed to the affair by singing several solos. The ball was one of the largest society events given in San Francisco for some months and the committee was able to realize several thousand dollars.

There is no doubt whatever but that the mere suggestion of a charity ball in Honolulu would be hailed with interest. Such an affair would not entail half the work the fair demands and the local society women who are always so willing to help the needy would enter into the charity ball idea with heart and soul.

Dancing has again been resumed in Honolulu, for instead of the usual run of card parties and receptions there have been several dances during the past fortnight and there are to be a number in the near future. Last Saturday evening the MacDonalds, guests and Judge and Mrs. William Whitney gave dances. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle and Miss Castle entertained at an elaborate function. This evening the students of McKinley High School and the members of the Hui Nalu Club will have dances, and the Kaimuki Rowing Club and the young men of the younger set are planning dances. Because of the fact that everyone here wants to dance, a charity ball might not be a bad idea after all.

Reception for Departing Pastor.

HILO, April 4.—A farewell reception and supper was given to Reverend August Drahm and wife by the ladies of the social circle of the First Foreign Church Wednesday evening, 150 people being present to bid adieu to the clergyman and his wife who leave for the mainland on April 9th. Reverend Drahm has been the minister of the First Foreign Church in Hilo for a number of years and is returning to California to make his home there and devote most of his time to literary work.

Following the dinner last night, speeches were made by Reverend Santos, Reverend Peaton-Smith and Judge Lyman, the speakers extolling the work of Reverend Drahm, while responded in a short speech in which he thanked all present for their showing of good will and the kind words of the speakers.

Shakespearean Recitals

Mrs. Walter F. Frear again heads the long list of patronesses for the Shakespearean recitals to be given at the Young Hotel. Marshall Darrach, who visited here and who became very popular here about three years ago, will arrive in Honolulu next Friday and on Tuesday evening, April 15th, will give Julius Caesar and on Thursday, the 17th will render "A Comedy of Errors." An interesting feature of Mr. Darrach's trip this time is that he will be on his wedding journey, having recently married Mrs. Marie L. Walton, one of the most brilliant writers on the Pacific coast.

Regimental Hop Successful

Another of the enjoyable bi-weekly regimental hops was given by the Fort Shafter officials and ladies last night, a number of town folk being given a taste of army hospitality. The splendid band of the Second Infantry played well-selected dance music throughout the evening, the big hall on the second floor of headquarters building, now part of the officers' club, making an ideal dancing floor. The Shafter hops are delightful in their formality, and are noted for a general good time that always goes with them.

Kaimuki Card Club

The members of the Kaimuki Card Club were entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. James Guild at her home on Fourteenth avenue. The first prize, a hand-painted plate, was given to Miss Mabel Hall and the second, a cut glass comport, to Mrs. L. Hommedieu. Among those present were Mrs. Lewis Underwood, Mrs. Charles Warr, Mrs. Hair, Miss Mable Hair, Mrs. Thayer, Mrs. L. Hommedieu, Miss Mann, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Emil Berard, Mrs. S. S. Peck and the hostess.

A Day at Haleiwa

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wickersham, Miss Bowers, Mrs. Eugene Murphy, Miss Gurney, Miss Sackett, Miss Evelyn Breckons, Mr. Robert Breckons and Mr. E. R. Hendry motored to Haleiwa on Thursday to spend several hours. The party returned to town in an observation car so that the members of the Wickersham party might see that part of the country both from the auto road and from the train.

Lamb-Wilson

Miss Anna B. Lamb of Edinburgh, Scotland, and E. Douglas Wilson of Los Angeles were married here last Tuesday. The wedding was the outcome of a romance begun when the two met two years ago and renewed their acquaintance in Honolulu. A brief honeymoon was spent at Haleiwa.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. L. Thevenin of Waialua announce the engagement of their daughter, Leonie, to Ch. Chiswick of Waialua, bookkeeper of the Waialua Agricultural Co. Wedding to take place in the near future.

Miss Florence Hoffman to Entertain
Miss Florence Hoffman will entertain the Card club on Monday afternoon. The affair was to have been held this week but owing to the hostess' absence from town was postponed.

Mrs. William P. Wooten, wife of Maj. Wooten, engineer corps.

Miss Harriet Hatch Complimented

By far the most elaborate of the week's affairs was the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle and Miss Beatrice Castle last evening in honor of Miss Harriet Hatch. The outdoor pavilion where the guests danced was effectively decorated with branches of bamboo and large hanging baskets of ferns. French baskets filled with delicate pink begonias were also hung about the lawn. Festoons of pale pink and blue lanterns cast a delicate glow over the beautiful gowns worn by the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle, Miss Castle and Miss Hatch received the guests. They were assisted during the evening by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Castle, Judge and Mrs. William Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooke, Miss Alice Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lowrey and Mr. Sherwood Lowrey. During the evening Kaul's quartette club furnished the music for the dancers.

Dinner for Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wickersham

General and Mrs. M. M. Macomb entertained at an elaborately-appointed dinner on Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wickersham, who spent the past fortnight in Honolulu. The color scheme for the decorations was pink and was carried out to the smallest detail. Delicate pink roses were arranged in the center of the table which was lighted with pink shaded candleabras. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wickersham, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter, Mrs. Quimby, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Major and Mrs. Kennon of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Major Penn, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp and General and Mrs. M. M. Macomb.

Wrenne Timberlake Leaves Honolulu.
Much to the regret of the younger set and the army and navy people, Wrenne Timberlake was one of the departing passengers in the Sherman on Thursday afternoon. It is seldom that so large a gathering congregates at a steamer to bid one person farewell as there was when the Sherman pulled away from the dock. Mr. Timberlake was a senior at Oahu College and one of the most popular students there. Last year he was the cheer leader and while occupying that position made quite a name for himself. His classmates gathered at the dock in a body and for an hour before the transport sailed gave the Puna-hou cheers and songs. He goes to take examinations for West Point.

Afternoon Social at Central Union

The Woman's Society of Central Union will give an afternoon social at the Parish House next Thursday afternoon from three until five o'clock. The literary portion of the program will be "An Afternoon of Eugene Field," by Mrs. Arthur L. Andrews, while Mrs. J. P. Erdman will have charge of the music. These socials given by the Woman's Society are always enjoyable affairs and it is seldom that less than two hundred ladies attend.

Pacific Club Ball

The president and board of governors of the Pacific Club have issued invitations for a dance on Friday the eleventh of April. A similar affair was given last spring and will be remembered as one of the most brilliant events ever given in Honolulu. The function next week will take place at the club house on Alakea street.

Beta Fraternity Men to Dine

Beta Theta Pi college fraternity men will dine tomorrow evening at the University club. It will be a reunion of all local members, whether college graduates or not and the fraternity wishes to assemble all of its members in Honolulu or elsewhere in the islands. The dinner will take place at 6 o'clock.

Dinner at Winkiki

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week was the dinner at which Mr. A. Dunkhase was host at his home at Waikiki on Monday evening. An attractive centerpiece for the table was arranged of flowers. Covers were laid for twelve.

The Second Infantry Bridge

Fort Shafter Bridge Club met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Cook, at the quarters of Captain and Mrs. Gibson. Mrs. Schlanser now holds the highest score, but there are still three games to be played before the winner is decided.

Euchta-Davis

Albert, Chas. Buchta and Miss Maude Davis, both of Honolulu were married by Minister Peters of the Christian church at the latter's residence in Kaimuki Thursday morning at 8:00 o'clock. They are spending a few days on Tantalus.

Mrs. William P. Wooten

Mrs. William P. Wooten, whose picture appears today, is the wife of Major Wooten of the Engineer Corps. Mrs. Wooten is one of the most popular hostesses in Honolulu and has entertained at a number of informal affairs. Much to the delight of her friends here she has changed her plans and will not leave Honolulu until the fall.

Double Military Wedding

A brilliant military-social event and one of the most notable functions in society here for years, will be the double military wedding at Schofield Barracks next Wednesday, when Miss Isabel Ray McGunagle and Lieutenant Philip Sheridan, and Miss Josephine Smith and Lieutenant Joseph Andrews, are married at the quarters of Colonel McGunagle, the commandant at Schofield.

Miss McGunagle and Miss Smith came to Schofield several months ago and have become most popular at the army post. Miss Smith is from Portland and has been the house guest of Miss McGunagle since the McGunagles have been in Oahu.

Miss McGunagle, who has been hostess at the commandant's quarters, has become a favorite with everyone, and the officers and ladies of the post regret that she is not to remain with them.

Lieutenant Phil Sheridan is well known at all of the posts here and has been active in all the social affairs in the army set. He arrived in Honolulu this week from Fort Huachuca, where he is stationed with the Fifth Cavalry, formerly of Schofield.

Lieutenant Andrews is with the First Field Artillery and is one of the most popular young officers on Oahu. Invitations for this double wedding were issued on Thursday and have been received by a number of the army folk of Honolulu, as well as those at Schofield.

Hui Nalu Dance

The Hui Nalus will give the first of a series of three dances at the Outrigger Club this evening, commencing at eight o'clock. The proceeds of these dances are to be devoted to covering the expenses of a relay swimming team which the club intends to send to the mainland to compete with the coast swimmers. The Hui Nalu quintet will furnish the music for the hop this evening.

Dinner at the Rathskeller

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Bishop entertained at a prettily appointed dinner at the Rathskeller on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. John Scott of Hilo. The color scheme for the decorations was yellow and was carried out with chrysanthemums. A vase of chrysanthemums filled the center of the table and the cards marking the place of each guest were ornamented with the same flowers. Covers were laid for Mrs. John Scott, Miss Margaret Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey, Mr. Hughes of Kaula and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Harold Dillingham's Luncheon

Mrs. Harold Dillingham was hostess at an informal luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Beretania avenue. Covers were laid for ten, including Miss Jessie Kennedy, Mrs. William Whitney, Mrs. E. White Sutton, Mrs. Herbert Dowsett, Miss L'Orange, Mrs. George Cooke, Mr. John Erdman, Miss Elnora Sturgeon, Miss May Kluegel and the hostess.

Hop at Fort Shafter

There were two hop suppers at Fort Shafter last evening, the hostesses being Mrs. Watkins, wife of Captain Watkins, and Mrs. Jamerson, wife of Captain Jamerson. Captain and Mrs. Watkins' guests included Major and Mrs. E. V. Smith, Mrs. Broderer, Mr. Hoby Walker, Mr. Laurence Redington, Paymaster Izard, Lieutenant Gaylor, Dr. Mudd, and Lieutenant Halloran.

Captain and Mrs. Jamerson entertained Major and Mrs. Neville. Captain and Mrs. Cutts and Major Williams.

Mrs. Knudsen Entertained

Last Saturday evening Judge and Mrs. William Whitney entertained at a delightful dance in honor of Mrs. Eric Knudsen of Kaula. The ball room was prettily decorated with bamboo and lacy pink begonias while clusters of spring flowers were in evidence throughout the house. Mr. and Mrs. Knudsen received with Judge and Mrs. Whitney. After several hours had been spent in dancing a buffet supper was served. About sixty guests were present.

Mrs. Watkins to Entertain

Mrs. Watkins, wife of Captain Watkins of Schofield Barracks, has issued invitations for a bridge luncheon to be given at the Country Club at one o'clock next Wednesday afternoon. The guests will include all the ladies of the Second Infantry.

Mrs. William Thompson's Luncheon

Mrs. William Thompson was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Brissard of Oakland who is visiting in Honolulu. Dainty maiden hair ferns formed an attractive centerpiece for the table. Covers were laid for eight including Mrs. Brissard, Mrs. W. A. Purdy, Mrs. Jack Balch, Mrs. W. A. Wall, Miss Morrison, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Noble and the hostess.

Mr. Atkins White a Dinner Host

Mr. Atkins White of New York entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening at the Rathskeller. A centerpiece for the table was formed of roses and violets. Covers were laid for five.

Dear to the Hearts of the Women.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Necessary Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.

Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth nature has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses, singers and women of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and pearly white and is highly desirable when preparing for daily or evening attire. As it is a liquid and non-greasy preparation, it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a greasy appearance of the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves sunburn, removes tan, pimples, blackheads, moth patches, rash, freckles and vulgar redness, which every woman desires.
